Despite intense political focus and debate for the past 10 years, Americans remain deeply worried about the availability and affordability of health care for themselves and their families. A clear and accessible primer, journalist Ryan Holeywell and medical doctor and health policy expert Arthur Garson provide Americans with the tools we need to know our own, well-informed view of the state of health care policy in America. By fact-checking 20 enduring health care myths they move the debate beyond Obamacare vs. repeal and replace and give citizens the tools they need to evaluate the major policy issues confronting our health care system.
